63.--(1) In this section "reserved Bill or motion" means any Bill or motion that would effect any alteration in the salary, allowances or conditions of service (including leave, passages and promotion) of any public office, or in the law, regulations or practice governing the payment of pensions, gratuities or other like benefits to any public officer or former public officer or his widow, children, dependants or personal representative:

(2) It shall be the duty of the President or Speaker or other person presiding in each Legislative House of the Western Region or the Eastern Region, or in any committee thereof, to consider whether any Bill or motion before the House or the committee, as the case may be, is a reserved Bill or motion, and if he is of opinion that it is a reserved Bill or motion he shall forthwith so inform the House and the Governor, and no further proceedings shall, save with the consent of the Governor, be taken upon the Bill or motion during the period commencing on the day on which the House is informed or the day on which the Governor is informed. whichever is the earlier, and ending two days after the day on which the Governor is informed.

(3) The Governor may, with respect to any Bill or motion that is before either Legislative House of the Western Region or the Eastern Region, or any committee thereof. at any time give notice to the President or Speaker or other person presiding in the House or the committee, as the case may be, that the Bill or motion is, in the opinion of the Governor, a reserved Bill or motion, and when such notice has been given, no further proceedings shall save with the consent of the Governor, be taken upon the Cill or motion.

(4) Where a Bill or motion, other than a motion for the amendment of a Bill that has been passed by either Legislative House of the Western Region or the Eastern Region, appears to the Governor to be a Bill or motion that would affect any public officer or former public officer or his widow, children, dependants or personal representatives prejudicially, then—

(a) in the case of a Bill, he shall, when the Bill is presented for his assent, reserve the Bill for the signification of Her Majesty's pleasure;

(b) in the case of a motion, he may, within a period of seven days from the date on which it was passed, certify by writing under his hand that he considers that any alteration that has been or would be effected by such motion is one that affects, or would so affect, any public officer or former public officer or his widow, children, dependants or personal representatives prejudicially, and in such case the motion shall not have effect unless and until it is approved by a Secretary of State.

(5) Any such notice as is referred to in subsection (3) of this section may be given by the Governor in such manner as he may think fit.

(6) The powers conferred by the foregoing provisions of this section on the Governor shall be exercised by him in his discretion.

(7) The Governor shall not withhold consent to the taking of further proceedings upon any Bill or motion in respect of which notice has been given in accordance with subsection (3) of this section if, in his opinion, any alteration that would be effected by such Bill or motion would not affect any public officer or former public officer or his widow, children, dependants or personal representatives prejudically.

(8) The provisions of a Bill or motion that would effect only the abolition of any office that is vacant shall be deemed not to affect any person prejudicially for the purposes of this section.

(9) Nothing in this section shall be construed so as to derogate from the powers of a Legislative House of the Western Region or the Eastern Region conferred by this Order to debats or dispose of any Bill or motion relating to the creation of any new office.

Reserved powers. 64.---(1) If the Governor-General considers that it is expedient in the interest of public order, public faith or good government (which expressions shall, without prejudice to their generality, include the responsibility of Nigeria as a territory within the British Commonwealth of Nations, and all matters pertaining to the creation or abolition of any public office or to the salary or other conditions of service of any pubic officer) that any Bill introduced, or any motion proposed, in the House of Representatives should have effect. then, if the House fail to pass such Bill or to carry such motion within such time and in such form as the Governor-General thinks reasonable and expedient, the Governor-General may, at any time that he thinks fit, and notwithstanding any provisions of this Crder or of any Standing Orders of the House, declare that such Bill or motion shall have effect as if it had been passed or carried by the House or Representatives either in the form in which it was so introduced or proposed or with such amendments as the Governor-General thinks fit that have been moved or proposed in the House of Representative, including any committee thereof: and the Bill or the motion shall be deemed thereupon to have been so passed or carried, and the provisions of this Order, and in particular the provisions relating to assent to Bills and disallowance of laws, shall have effect accordingly.

(2) The Governor-General shall forthwith report to a Secretary of State every case in which he makes any such declaration and the reasons therefor.

(3) If any member of the House of Representatives objects to any declaration made under this section, he may, within seven days of the making thereof, submit to the Governor-General a statement in writing of his reasons for so objecting, and a copy of such statement shall, if furnished by such member, be forwarded by the Governor-General as soon as practicable to a Secretary of State.

(4) Any declaration made under this section other than a declaration relating to a Bill may be revoked by a Secretary of State and the Governor-General shall cause notice of such revocation to be published in the Official Gazette of the Federation: and from the date of such publication any motion that is deemed to have been carried by virtue of the declaration shall cease to have effect and the provisions of subsection (2) of section 38 of the Interpretation Act, 1889, shall apply to such revocation as they apply to the repeal of an Act of Parliament.

(5) The powers conferred on the Governor-General by this section shall be exercised by him in his discretion.

(6) The provisions of this section shall apply in relation to the Legislative Houses of a Region as they apply in relation to the House of Representatives, and for that purpose shall have effect as if—

(a) references to the Governor-General and the Official Gazette of the Federation were references to the Governor and the Official Gazette of that Region;

(b) the words "or in any joint sitting of delegates convened under section 69 of this Order" were inserted in subsection (1) of this section immediately after the words "including any committee thereof".

(7) The provisions of this section shall apply in relation to the House of Assembly of the Southern Cameroons as they apply in relation to the House of Representatives, and for that purpose references to the Official Gazette of the Federation shall be construed as if they were references to the Official Gazette of the Southerin Cameroons.

Offices in Existence at the Date of Commencement of this Order and Officers serving at that Date

Transfer of offices and officers to public service of Federation.

181.—Every office in the former public service of Nigeria shall at the commencement of this Order become an office in the public service of the Federation.

(2) (a) Any established officer who is holding an office in the former public service of Nigeria at the time when that office becomes an office in the public service of the Federation under subsection (1) of this section shall thereupon become an officer in the public service of the Federation.

(b) Every officer who becomes an officer in the public service of the Federation under this section shall, subject to the provisions of this Order, continue to enjoy and be subject to all the terms and conditions of service that applied to him immediately before the commencement of this Order, including any rights or liabilities that may accrue to him under those terms, so, however, that he may accept any other terms and conditions that are subsequently brought into force with respect to the public service of the Federation and that are applicable in his case.

(3) References in this section to offices in the former public service of Nigeria are references to such offices in that service (other than the offices of Governor and Leutenant-Governor) as were in existence immediately before the commencement of this Order and were offices of emolument under the Crown for the purpose of the Nigeria (Constitution) Order in Council, 1951.

Allocation to Regions of offices in public service of Federation.

182—(1) During the transitional period the Governor-General may, by Order, allocate to any Region, any office that—

(a) becomes an office in the public service of the Federation under section 181 of this Order; and

(b) is in his opinion primarily concerned with any matter in respect of which the Government of that Region has executive authority.

(2) Every office so allocated to a Region shall remain an office in the public service of the Federation until it is abolished under section 187, or becomes an office in the public service of a Region under section 185 of this Order.

(3) (a) Before allocating to the Northern Region, the Western Region or the Eastern Region any office that was not an office on the establishment of the former Northern Region, Western Region or Eastern Region, as the case may be, the Governor-General shall consult with the Governor of the Region.

(b) For the purposes of this subsection an office shall be deemed to have been an office on the establishment of the former Northern Region, Western Region or Eastern Region it inimediately before the commencement of this Order the was an office for which specific provision was made in the estimates of the Government of that Region.

functions of an effice allocated to a Region, and in relation to any officer appointed to act in such an office, as if the reference therein to the Commissioner of the Cameroons or any officer having authority over a department of government of the Federation were a reference to the Governor of that Region.

(3) Any officer assigned to perform the functions of an office allocated to a Region, or any officer in the public service of the Federation appointed to act in such an office shall notwithstanding that he is an officer in the public service of the Federation, be subject to direction and control as respects the performance of the functions of that office as if he were an officer in the public service of that Region.

Regions to be financially liable for allocated offices.

184.—(1) Such sums as are from time to time declared by the Governor-General to be payable out of public funds to, or in respect of, any officer assigned to perform the functions of an office allocated to a Region, or any officer in the public service of the Federation appointed to act in such an office, shall be paid by that Region.

(2) The reference in this section to sums payable out of public funds does not include a reference to sums so payable for any purpose referred to in paragraph (a) or paragraph (b) of subsection (4) of section 164 of this Order.

(3) The provisions of this section shall not apply in relation to any perform or gratuity granted under any law or in accordance with a contract.

Governor-General may transfer officers.

185.-(1) During the transitional period the Governor-General may, with the consent of the officer concerned, transfer any officer in the public service of the Federation to the public service of a Region.

87

Provided that the Governor-General shall not transfer any such officer to the public service of a Region without the agreement of the Governor of that Region unless such officer is the officer for the time being assigned to perform the functions of an office allocated to that Region.

(2) (a) Where an officer, who is the officer for the time being assigned to perform the functions of an office allocated to a Region, is transferred to the public service of that Region under this section, that office shall thereupon become an office in the public service of that Region.

(b) The provisions of this subsection shall not apply in relation to the offices of Civil Secretary, Legal Secretary or Financial Secretary of the Western Region or of the Eastern Region.

(3) (a) Where any officer who is the officer for the time being assigned to perform the functions of an office allocated to a Region is transferred to the public service of that Region under this section, the terms and conditions of service that are applied to that officer in respect of his service in the public service of that Region shall not be less favourable to him than the terms and conditions of service that applied to him immediately before the commencement of this Order.

(A) If the office held by an officer at the time when he is transferred to the public service of a Region (in this paragraph referred to as his "existing office") is not the office that was held by him immediately before the commencement of this Order, he shall for the purposes of paragraph (a) of this subsection be deemed to have been holding his existing office immediately before the commencement of this Order.

(4) Where it appears to the Governor-General—

(a) that a High Court will not be established for a Regign in pursuance of section 142 of this Order before the end of the transitional period, or

(b) that a High Court so established for a Region will not assume its functions for the purposes of section 219 of this Order before the end of the transitional period.

the Governor-General may, by Proclamation published in the Official Gazette of the Federation, direct that in relation to such offices allocated to that Region as may be specified in such Proclamation (being offices that are in the opinion of the Governor-General connected with the functioning in that Region of the Supreme Court of Nigeria) the transitional period shall, for the purposes of this section and section 186 of this Order, be deemed to extend to such date as may be specified in such Proclamation.

Established officers not accepting transfer to retire.

186.-(1) An established officer who, at the expiration of the transitional period-

(a) is the officer for the time being assigned to perform the functions of an office allocated to a Region; and

(b) has not accepted an appointment either in the public service of the Federation in an office which is not so allocated or in any other pensionable office,

shall retire from the public service of the Federation.

(2) For the avoidance of doubts, it is hereby declared that an officer who retires in accordance with subsection (1) of this section shall not, by reason only for so retiring, be entitled to any pension or gratuity other than such as may be granted him under the provisions of regulations made under Part 2 of this Chapter or of any pension law, or to any additional pension.

(3) In this section "other pensionable office" means an office, other than an office in the public service of the Federation, service in which may, under the Pensions Ordinance, 1951 (v.), be taken into account in determining whether an officer is eligible for a pension.

Abolition of offices allocated to Region.

187. - (1) Subject to the provisions of subsections (2) and (3) of this section, an office allocated to a Region may be abolished by direction of the Governor-General at any time before it becomes an office in the public service of a Region under section 185 of this Order.

(2) Where an established officer who is the officer for the time being assigned to perform the functions of an office allocated to a Region retires from the public service of Federation under subsection (1) of section 186 of this Order that office shall be deemed to be abolished immediately after the said officer has so retired.

(3) Where an officer who is the officer for the time being assigned to perform the functions of an office allocated to a Region under section 185 of this Order transferred to the public service of a Region

(w) No. 29 of 1951.

other than the Region to which that office is allocated, that office shall be deemed to be abolished immediately after the said officer, has been so transferred

Contracts of service

188 - Any contract made before the commencement of this Order by any person with the Government of Nigeria or with any person acting on behalf of the said. Government to serve the said Government for a specified period in a public office shall, as from the date of the commencement of this Order, have effect as if it had been made with the Government of the Federation and references in such contract to the Government of Nigeria or to any officer of the said Government shall be construed, and any such contract shall be enforceable, accordingly.

Exercise of Powers Exercise of powers under Chapter VII.

189. – (1) In the exercise of the powers conferred on him by this Chapter the Governor-General shall  $\sim$  act in his discretion:

Provided that in appointing the members of the Federal Commission other than the Chairman the Governor-General shall consult with the Council of Ministers but shall not be required to act in accordance with the advice of that Council.

(2) Subsection (1) of this section shall apply in relation to the Governor of a Region as it applies in relation to the Governor-General, and for that purposes shall have effect as if the references therein tag the Governor-General, the Federal Commission and the Council of Ministers were references to the Governor of a Region, the Regional Commission and the Executive Council of the Region. Application of Pensions Laws and Liability for Certain Pensions Application of pensions laws.

190 - (1) In this section-

"existing pensions law" means any pension law that has effect under section 57 of this Order as if it were a law enacted by the Federal Legislature;

"dependants" means in relation to any person the widow, children, dependants and personal representatives of such person.

(2) Subject to the provision of this Order-

(a) any existing pensions law that applies immediately before the commencement of this Order in relation to—

(i) any persons who was an officer in the former public service of Nigeria and who has ceased to be an officer in that service before the commencement of this Order; or

(ii) the dependants of any such person; shall continue to apply in relation to that person or those dependants, as the case may be; and

(b) any existing pensions law that applies immediately before the commencement of this Order in relation to—

(i) any officer who becomes an officer in the public service of the Federation under section 181 of this Order; or

(ii) the dependants of such officer shall continue to apply in relation to that officer or his dependants, as the case may be, in respect of the service of that officer in the former public service of Nigeria, and shall, also apply in relation to that officer or his dependants, as the case may be, in respect of the service of that officer in the public service of the Federation.

(3) Any law enacted by the Federal Legislature may be applied in relation to any person referred to in subsection (2) of this section in respect of any of the service referred to in that subsection instead of the existing pensions law that applies by virtue of that subsection if the law enacted by the Federal Legislature is not less favourable to that person than the existing pensions law.

(4) Subject to the provisions of this Order, where any officer is transferred under section 185 of this Order to the public service of a Region any pensions law that, in accordance with the foregoing provisions of this section, applies in relation to that officer or his dependants immediately before such transfer in respect of the service of that officer in the public service of the Federation shall apply in relation to that officer or his dependants, as the case may be, in respect of the service of that officer in the public service of that Region.

Provided that if the Widows and Orphans Pension Ordinance applies in relation to such officer or his dependants immediately before such transfer it shall continue to apply in relation to him or them as if he were still an officer in the public service of the Federation.

(5) Where any officer is transferred under section 185 of this Order to the public service of a Region, any law enacted by the Legislature of that Region may be applied in relation to that officer or his dependants in respect of the service of that officer in the public service of that Region instead of the pensions law that applies by virtue of subsection (4) of this section, if the law enacted by the Legislature of the Region is not less favourable to such officer or his dependants, as the case may be, than the pensions law that applies by virtue of the said subsection (4).

(6) (a) Subject to the provisions of this Order, any pension, gratuity or other like benefit that may be granted to any person who is appointed to the public service of the Federation or of a Region after the commencement of this Order or to the dependants of any such person shall be governed by the law in force on the date on which that person is first appointed to a pensionable office in such service or by any law made thereafter that is not less favourable to that person or his dependants, as the case may be, and is applicable in his or their case.

(b) The reference in paragraph (a) of this subsection to any person who is appointed to the public service of the Federation or of a Region does not include a reference to any officer who becomes an officer in the public service of the Federation under section 1817 or who is transferred to the public service of a Region under section 185 of this Order.

(7) Where any person is entitled to exercise an option whether one of two or more laws shall apply in his case, the law specified by him in exercising the option shall, for the purposes of this section, be deemed to be more favourable than the other law or laws.

(8) At any time during the transitional period, the Governor-General may, by Order published in the Official Gazette of the Federation, provide that any such pensions law as is mentioned in subsection (2) or subsection (4) of is section shall be read and construed with such adaptations and modifications as may appear to the Governor-General to be necessary or expedient for bringing the provisions of that law into accord with the provisions of this section, or otherwise for giving effect or enabling effect to be given to those provisions; and any such law shall have effect accordingly from such date as may be specified in the Order, not being a date earlier than the commencement of this Order.

Liability for pensions of certain officers.

FOURTH SCHEDULE

METHOD OF CALCULATING ADDITIONAL ALLOWANCE OR ADDITIONAL GRATUITY IN LIEU THEREOF

Sections 193 and 194.

1. In this Schedule, unless the context otherwise requires-

"additional allowance" and "additional gratuity" mean respectively the additional allowance and the additional gratuity that may be granted to an officer under regulations made in pursuance of paragraph (c) of subsection (1) of section 193 or paragraph (c) of subsection (1) of section 194 of this Order;

"carned pension" means the pension to which an officer would be entitled und $\pi$  regulations made in pursuance if paragraph (b) of subsection (1) of section 193 or paragraph (a) or paragraph (b) of subsection (1) of section 194 of this Order, if he did not accept a gratuity in lieu thereof and did not elect to be paid a reduced pension under section 196 of this Order;

"pensionable emoluments" and "pensionable service" have the meanings assigned to those terms in the Pensions Ordinance, 1951, and the Pensions Regulations, 1951.

2. The additional allowance shall be calculated at the annual rate of one hundred and eightieth part of the officer's pensionable emoluments at the date of bis retirement for each complete period of one year of pensionable service:

> (aa) Laws of Nigeria, Rev. 1948, Chapter 230. (bb) Laws of Nigeria, Rev. 1948, I. p. 15.

Provided that the additional allowance shall not exceed such annual sum as would, when added to the officer's earned pension, make an annual sum equal to the pension for which the officer would have been eligible if he had continued to hold the office held by him on the date of his retirement until be had reached the age of fifty-five years and had then retired having been granted all the increments of salary for which he would have been eligible by C t date.

3. The additional gratuity is the one sixteenth part of the aggregate amount of the officer's pensionable emoluments during his total pensionable service:

Provided that the additional gratuity payable to any officer shall be subject to a reduction proportionate to the reduction to which, if he had been granted an additional allowance instead of an additional gratuity, his additional allowance would have been subject by virtue of the proviso to paragraph 2 of this Schedule.
